

5 Ways to Know if You Need a Freelance Writer

1. You've been starring at a blank page/screen for two weeks and still haven't written more than, "Dear Sir/Madam."
2. Your employees don't read what you write.
3. You've been saying you need a newsletter for months but don't have the time to get started.
4. You'd like to grow your business awareness with direct mail but you don't know where to begin.
5. You have news to share (new employees, new product line, new hours, just won an award, etc.) but don't know how to write a press release and even if you did; who has the time?

If you answered yes to one or more of the above, call Deborah Chaddock Brown today for a free consultation.
