FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Women's Network 2nd Friday Luncheon is October 13th!

TOPIC: Presenting Yourself for Success...
Etiquette in Corporate Meetings and Etiquette on Non-Profit Volunteer Boards

There's more to proper etiquette in a professional setting, than just knowing which fork to use and is your napkin the one on the left or the right. Proper behavior and knowing how to communicate effectively is far more important than whether or not you use the wrong utensil for your entrée.

On Friday, October 13th, you're invited to attend the Women's Network 2nd Friday Luncheon to learn more about the unspoken rules for corporate etiquette in the meeting room and the boardroom. Learn tips on behaviors that portray professionalism; communication styles needed to be a leader; and what is expected at a corporate and/or board meeting.

Norma J. Rist, president of Norma J. Rist CEO Consulting, Inc., brings immeasurable knowledge and experience as it relates to the corporate world to any event. Her experience includes positions as controller for a $200 million division of a public corporate and 70-hour-work-weeks to finally be promoted to VP/GM for a $40 million manufacturing and wholesale company. Norma wrote the book on 'Etiquette in the Boardroom that no one else will tell you.'

Also presenting will be Deborah Chaddock Brown, president of AllWrite Ink. Deborah has over 25 years experience in the business world. Having forged her way in a man' world, her perseverance earned her the position of Director of Communications for a billion dollar corporation. She made mistakes along the way, but who of us hasn't? Through trial and error, she learned a few tips regarding personal presentation, other's perception, and trying to be heard in a boardroom filled with men along the way. Come and listen to two proven, professional women tell you how they climbed the ladder of success, and how you can too.

The luncheon will be held at 2 Dine 4 (440 Grant Street, entrance is off Wheeler St.). Registration is at 11:45, with lunch being served at Noon. The presentation will begin at 12:30.
